

Performance

Burklyn will pay 100% of the ticket price for all Catamount daytime performances and will pay up to 75% of the ticket price/or total cost of performance for all other requests.

No chaperone tickets or funding for transportation are covered.

Funding will be distributed in 2 ways. When we approve your initial application, you will be sent 75% of the funding. You will receive the remaining 25% when you have submitted some sort of acknowledgement (thank you note, press release, or receipt of tickets) of receiving the grant and proof that the event or tickets has occurred. Documentation of these is necessary due to auditing purposes.

Catamount Arts in St. Johnsbury, the Flynn Theater in Burlington, or the Wang Theater in Boston, and other similar places could be destinations to see a performance.

Consideration will be given to requests for all other projects, such as performances scheduled to appear at respective school or on an individual basis at the time of the application.

Availability of funds in based on current populations of schools as of Sept. 2018.
